

FEHRMAN, Angela

TOWNSEND

Angie is currently the Eligibility Review Officer for Ontario Works – Health and Social Services; servicing both Haldimand and Norfolk Counties. Angie has worked for Ontario Works since 2006 in a few different roles. Previous to this position Angie's role was training the new case workers and prior to that was a case worker herself for many years which gave her the opportunity to attain the skills to assist and liaise with community agencies as well as have sensitivity towards diversity/inclusion of clients and co-workers. Angie has a strong knowledge of community services, resources, policies, programs and issues affecting clients whom have special circumstances, such as mental health, homelessness and physical disabilities.

Angie obtained her diploma in Correctional Work from Niagara College as well as her degree in Justice Studies from Royal Roads University.

Angie was born and raised in Townsend and is very active in her community as a member of her local Lions Club as well as previously volunteering at H-N REACH. Angie is excited to join H-N REACH as a Board member and is looking forward to contributing directly to our community.
