

MARTIN, Michelle*SIMCOE

Michelle has always enjoyed volunteering and enjoys supporting the children, families, and individuals that REACH serves. Michelle joined the REACH Board of Directors in June 2012.

Michelle resides with her family in Simcoe and has several years of retail and administrative experience. She currently works in the financial field.

Michelle's previous community involvement has focused on area sports clubs and school programs. Her other interests include reading and learning – she recently earned an Accounting Diploma through McMaster University.