

SMITH, Ronelda

Ronelda is originally from Saskatchewan. She moved to Ontario after graduating from Regina General Hospital to train as a Psychiatric Nursing and enjoyed a long career at Hamilton Psychiatric Hospital. After leaving the HPH Ronelda taught at Mohawk College School of Nursing in the RN and RPN's program and moved to Simcoe. She worked for almost 20 years at what is now called the HNHB Community Care Access Centre or LHIN.

Ronelda is a past member on the Haldimand Family Health Team Board and the Advisory Committee for the Simcoe Youth Centre. She was a member of the Haldimand-Norfolk REACH Board of Directors from 1995 until 1998 and returned to the Board in 2007.

Ronelda's areas of interest are her grandchildren, golf, health issues, gardening, committee work, and giving back to the community.

SIMCOE